System Architecture

Features:

Client Side
• Send Package: The default package delivery, the client will be asked to pick the place of delivery, will be given a bill, after accepting a courier will pick up the package and deliver it following a path.
• Express Delivery: The client can select a special delivery where, for a extra fee on the regular price, the package will be delivered as fast as possible.
• Track Delivery: The client will be able to check at all times where his package is going.

Courier Side
• Package Pick Up Notification: The Courier will get a notification on his terminal with information on the package and decides whether to pick it or decline it.
• Package Delivery: The Courier as soon as delivers the package, will confirm with the recipient and confirm on his terminal that the package is delivered.